

Craigieburn Station – proposed new car park

About the project

The new car park will be built along the eastern edge of the Hume Highway, directly east of the station, and will be linked to the station via a new footpath.

Planning for the new car park is underway, with detailed design and construction to follow in 2019.

Craigieburn Station – proposed new car park

Craigieburn Station – proposed new car park

Artist impression - concept only